How inviting is your home?

It's the obvious but overlooked things that often cause home burglaries. You go on vacation but forget to tell neighbors. And so mail and newspapers pile up. Or you leave your house totally dark. Or the fence out back is so high, it blocks the view of neighbors. Or maybe you forget to lock up. Forty percent of home invasions happen because people simply don't lock their doors and windows. The list goes on and on. To help make your home burglar-proof, see your Allstate agent. You're in good hands.

Heard the one about the rabbi and the imam?

Mitzvah Day celebrates its first decade with events to foster community cohesion

HARRIET SHERWOOD
Religion correspondent
A COUPLE of years ago, I was invited to a Mitzvah Day service at a local synagogue in north-west London. As the rabbi and his wife, and their young children, led the service, I was struck by the warmth and friendliness of the community in hundreds of synagogues and mosques across the country, involving volunteers from neighbouring synagogues and charities. Mitzvah Day means community, and it is impressive to see it practised as good deed.

The rabbi, Michael Lazarus Mirvis, and his wife, Shirley Mirvis, a former general manager of Marks & Spencer, had invited friends and neighbours to help prepare a meal for the Mitzvah Day service. They had invited guests to bring along their children, so that they could work together to create a three-course meal for
